Motion for Order of Notice

Now comes the Plaintiff, Robert J. Gallagher, and moves that this Honorable Court rule that adequate notice be satisfied by a means other than the ordinary FRCP, Rule 4 Service of Process procedures, i.e.,

- (I) via publication under FRCP IX. Special Proceedings Rule 71A, (3) (B), i.e. the Defendants *cannot be personally served, because after diligent inquiry within the state in which the complaint is filed the defendant's place of residence cannot be ascertained by the plaintiff; or,
- (II) via electronic mail under which the defendants are operating; or
- (III) via service at last known address; or
- (IV) via *otherwise

for the following reasons:

(1) Plaintiff has already made every diligent and reasonable attempt- over a period of six months- to serve Defendants without success- and at considerable cost;

(2) Despite the fact that Defendants constantly email Plaintiff with Pharmaceutical ads, Defendants refuse to respond to requests for business address and to Request for Waiver of Service of Process (Exhibit A);

(3) ABC Legal Services, Inc., 910 5th Ave., Seattle, WA 98104 (206-521-9000) Tracking # 3531862 served original Complaint on Plaintiffs on May 2, 2005 at 3:09 p.m. at the cost to the Plaintiff of $250 (Exhibit B).

(4) On 9/6/05 the Corporation Division of the Michigan Secretary of State notified Plaintiff: "The address you listed in your email for the entity New Pharm Distributors, LLC is what we currently have listed for the registered office address. There has been no other documents filed for this entity other than the articles of organization. You may view them on our website at www.michigan.gov/corporations" (Exhibit C, emphasis added).

(5) Plaintiff has attempted to contact Plaintiff at said address (on file with the Michigan Secretary of State) with repeated Requests for Waiver of Service of Process but mail is returned. The latest attempts failed, despite large bold print on the envelope ADDRESS REQUIRED REQUESTED. The most recent attempts were made on 07/08/05 and on 08/18/05 and were returned, marked UAA - UNDELIVERABLE AS ADDRESSED - FORWARDING EXPIRED (Exhibit D).

(6) Despite Plaintiff's request that Service of Process be satisfied at the last known address, Plaintiff faces a dilemma: if posted mail is returned- how can Service of Process at last known address succeed? Thus, Plaintiff's request for Service of Process by publication, or by electronic mail, or otherwise.

(7) Plaintiff spoke with Defendant Ralph Jordan via telephone twice at 866-890-8629 but 866 is toll-free and so does not indicate location (Exhibit A).

(8) Defendants have forfeited their right to ordinary means of Service of Process by making themselves, in effect, unavailable for such- including failure to keep their own Secretary of State updated as to location.

(9) It is not a giant leap to conclude that either intentionally or unintentionally, Defendants are, in effect, evading ordinary means of Service of Process. A business ought to be accountable by at least a mailing address.

Wherefore, plaintiff, who has made every diligent and reasonable (and more than reasonable) attempt to contact defendants over a six-month period, without success, requests this Court allow a means other than the usual Service of Process to be effectuated.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert J. Gallagher

Now comes the Plaintiff who swears to the following:

(1) Plaintiff has made every diligent and reasonable attempt- over a period of six months- to serve defendants, without success- and at considerable cost of time and money.

(2) Defendants constantly email plaintiff with pharmaceutic ads but do not respond to requests for business address and to Request for Waiver of Service of Process.

(3) Defendants' last known address is listed with the Michigan Secretary of State Corporation Division as 6734 Edinborough Drive, W. Bloomfield MI 48322 and yet all mail sent by plaintiff to that address is returned (Exhibit C, Exhibit D).

(4) Plaintiff has spoken twice with defendant Ralph Jordan at 866-890-8629 but Melissa Data at <http://www.melissadata.com/keywordsearch/areacode.htm> reports that free-toll telephone numbers cannot be traced to a state location.

Respectfully submitted,

Your email was referred to the Corporation Division for a response on September 6. We do not capture the actual location of the entity. The statute requires we keep the registered office address of the resident agent on file in our office. The address you listed in your email for the entity New Pharm Distributors, LLC is what we currently have listed for the registered office address. There has been no other documents filed for this entity other than the articles of organization. You may view them online on our website at www.michigan.gov/corporations and go to Business Entity Search. Key in the name of the entity and click search.

We have no listing of the name RX-e Pharm in this office.
